

Lesson 3

blameworthy BLAME•wur•thee ADJECTIVE deserving to be blamed [The judge ruled that both drivers were equally blameworthy and threw out their lawsuits against each other.]

catastrophe kuh•TASS•truh•fee NOUN a sudden and severe misfortune; a disaster [Failure to put the campfire out completely resulted in a catastrophe.]

chide CHIDE VERB to express disapproval; to scold [Winona's parents chide her if she uses bad manners.]

defect DEE•fekt NOUN
a lack of something necessary for completeness or perfection; a fault; an imperfection [This coat was on sale because it has a tiny defect in the lining.]

falsehood FALSE•hood NOUN
a false statement; a lie [Tim's story of how he spent the afternoon was filled with falsehoods.]

filch FILCH VERB to steal, especially something small or of little value [Each girl accused the other of trying to filch her pencil.]

lethal LEE•thul ADJECTIVE causing death [Many medicines are lethal if too large a dose is taken.]

perimeter pur•IH•muh•tur NOUN the outer boundary of an area or the total length of this boundary [Dad measured the yard's perimeter to see how much fencing he would need to buy.]

recurrent ri•KUR•unt ADJECTIVE appearing or happening again or from time to time [The beauty of nature is a recurrent theme in the poems of Robert Frost.]

tedious TEE•dee•us ADJECTIVE long and tiring; boring [Copying the entire paper by hand was tedious work.]

thwart THWORT VERB to keep someone from doing something or keep a thing from being done [The bank's refusal to lend us money will thwart our plans to buy a house.]

totter TOT•ur VERB to move in an unsteady way due to a problem with balance; to stand or walk in a shaky way [The baby managed to totter four steps.]

update UP•date
VERB to bring up to date with additions or corrections; to make known the most recent facts, ideas, and so on [Ling will update us on plans for the class party.]
NOUN a current version or updated report [Mom kept switching stations, hoping for an update on the weather.]

vehement VEE•uh•munt ADJECTIVE having or showing very strong feeling; intensely emotional [The plan to chop down the forest to build new airport runways was met with vehement objections.]

vertical VUR•ti•kul ADJECTIVE in a straight up-and-down position; upright [The sides of a house are usually vertical.]

ANNOUNCER: Here's the News 2 Go news team with today's news updates!

BOB: Bob Bobbins here. Today's top news story is some nasty weather. Let's go to Clyde Cloud for an update from the News 2 Go Weather Command Center. Clyde?

CLYDE: Yup, Bob. [Chuckle.] Well, a few twisters are blowing around town today, causing a bit of a catastrophe. With lethal winds of up to—

BOB: Sorry, Clyde, we're interrupting you to go to Mary Sue Moss for a very important News 2 Go news flash.

Exercise A: Synonyms

Write the Word that could be used in place of each underlined word or phrase.

1. The border of a circle is called its circumference. _____
2. Mr. Reese wondered if his daughter's excuse was a fib. _____
3. Our coach will criticize us if we show poor sportsmanship. _____
4. Poisonous snakes are dangerous, and some bites can be fatal. _____
5. I grabbed for a tree branch when my ladder began to wobble. _____
6. The school will modernize its classrooms by adding computers. _____
7. Luke's forceful reply, "That idea stinks," made his opinion clear. _____
8. We knew by the look on Mimi's face that she was the guilty one. _____
9. Reach up and touch the wall, then jump and touch it as high as you can to measure your upward leap. _____
10. We fenced the garden to successfully oppose the rabbits' efforts to get our lettuce. _____
11. Hal's days were filled with a dull routine of typing business letters and filing folders. _____
12. The woman kept a tight grip on her wallet, fearing that someone would make off with it. _____

Exercise B: Antonyms

Write the Word that means the opposite of each underlined word.

13. Is the house they live in located at the center of the lot or near its _____?
14. Was the film fascinating, or was it _____?
15. Are you going to assist me or _____ me?
16. Was that statement the truth or a _____?
17. Did the principal praise her or _____ her?
18. Is the fence post crooked, or is it _____?
19. Is that a life-saving drug or a _____ one?
20. Is the fans' support half-hearted or _____?

MARY SUE: Bob, I'm here in front of City Hall, where the statue of former Mayor Filo Fogg has been filched! Police say that nobody noticed until today because the statue had been covered while a defect in Fogg's feet—that is, the statue's feet [giggle]—was being repaired. It seems that this defect had caused the statue to totter dangerously. Actually, Bob, it's so breezy here that I'm experiencing a little trouble staying vertical myself! Ha-ha!

Exercise C: If...

Write the Word that best completes each sentence.

- 21. If a certain breed of dog is supposed to have ears that stand up, a floppy ear on such a dog would be considered a
- 22. If you had to put 800 words into alphabetical order, by the time you got to the fiftieth word, you'd probably find the task
- 23. If a store sold lots of very small, valuable objects, it might keep them in locked cabinets to make them hard to
- 24. If a car going fifteen miles an hour hits a tree, that's bad; but if a car, going seventy miles an hour hits a tree, that's a
- 25. If you have a particular dream not just once but over and over again on different nights, that dream is
- 26. If you had to walk on stilts, but you'd never done it before so you weren't any good at it, you'd probably
- 27. If you're interested in a news story and want to know the latest information, you might turn to News 2 Go to get an

Exercise D: Other Forms of Words

Use what you know about the Words to choose the correct answers.

- ___ 28. Which statement shows vehemence?
A. "O.K." B. "Maybe." C. "Never!"
- ___ 29. What would make a pair of snow boots defective?
A. a hole B. a fur lining C. a snowstorm
- ___ 30. Which of the following has the most catastrophic results?
A. a war B. a sale C. a card game
- ___ 31. Which of the following is a behavior that recurs?
A. a crime B. a habit C. a triumph

BOB: Thanks, Mary Sue. No one can chide you for tilting a bit in this weather. Right, Clyde?

CLYDE: You are right, Bob, and [chuckle] upright too! Mary Sue is not blameworthy. These lethal winds could thwart anybo—

BOB: Sorry, Clyde, we're out of time. You'll have to update us on those lethal winds later.

Exercise E: Analogies

Write the letter of the word that completes the analogy.

- ___ 32. sad : happy :: blameworthy :
A. innocent C. reasonable
B. regretful D. uncomfortable
- ___ 33. grumpy : grouchy :: recurrent :
A. new C. strange
B. ruined D. repeated
- ___ 34. hot : warm :: lethal :
A. damp C. surprising
B. incorrect D. dangerous
- ___ 35. hurricane : storm :: catastrophe :
A. puzzle C. criticism
B. hardship D. assignment

Exercise F: Fill-in

Write the Word that best completes each sentence. Use each word only once.

36. Measuring a person's height determines his or her _____ size.
37. Mowing a large lawn with a power mower can be a _____ job even though it isn't an exhausting one.
38. Ms. Barber posted "No Trespassing" signs along the _____ of her property.
39. Some chemicals are safe when used alone, but they are _____ if they are mixed together.
40. Charlie was so weak and dizzy that he could barely _____ into the kitchen.
41. Barbed wire was attached to the top of the wall to _____ efforts to climb over it.
42. The doctor asked whether Mira's pain was _____ or if this was the first and only time she had felt it.
43. We can't drive our brand new car until a _____ in the steering has been repaired.
44. Failing to shut the gate showed the man's _____ lack of concern for the safety of the dog in the yard.
45. Kenny's statement was a complete _____, but no one was fooled by it.
46. I thought the teacher would _____ me for being late, but she just smiled as I came in.
47. Today in Minneapolis, a _____ occurred when an explosion at a factory killed two workers and injured others.
48. The fox that used to _____ eggs from the henhouse stopped raiding it after the farmer got a dog.
49. The children made _____ protests to the suggestion of taking a bath, because they were enjoying their game.
50. The owners will _____ the old hotel by putting in new elevators and a central heating system.

News 2 Go!

ANNOUNCER:

When you need news now, go to News 2 Go, where no news is not good news.

Quick LIST

blameworthy ADJ.	defect N.	perimeter N.	totter V.
catastrophe N.	falsehood N.	recurrent ADJ.	update V., N.
chide V.	filch V.	tedious ADJ.	vehement ADJ.
	lethal ADJ.	thwart V.	vertical ADJ.