

EVERYDAY SUCCESSES

VOLUME 3, ISSUE 9

OCTOBER 14-18, 2019

1 – Congratulations to Samuel Clemens High School head football coach Jared Johnston, who has been selected to coach the Black squad in the San Antonio Sports All-Star Football Game in the Alamodome on January 4, 2020. Three of Johnston's players will be on his team: Vincente Perez, receiver; Derrick Lewis, linebacker; and Keion Bennett, linebacker.

Meanwhile, three Byron P. Steele High School players will line up as members of the Gold Squad: Daryn McKnight, receiver; Damion Hart, defensive end; and Maison Sharp, safety. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated

2 – Clayann Holbrook, a seventh grader at Corbett Junior High School, placed first in the Central Texas Barrel Racing Association (CTBRA) Youth Champions Division in barrels, third place in poles for the season, third place in the All-Around category, and 24th overall in the Open Division. She won additional prizes, including more than $1,700 for her efforts! #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated

3 – Several of the bus drivers transporting students to the US Bands Yamaha Cup band competition in Austin took the time to wish our Byron P. Steele High School students well last week. They purchased Air Grams, which are messages read over the PA system, to encourage the band members, and then openly cheered for them during the contest! #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator

4 – Congratulations to Marissa Gomez of Samuel Clemens High School. She recently took part in the San Antonio Photography Tournament and placed in the top five among 127 contestants in the journalism category. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator

5 – Our thanks to Wal-Mart for its recent donation of school supplies to Green Valley Elementary School. A tip of the hat to our warehouse employees who delivered the two pallets of supplies as well. #SelfMotivated #ServiceOriented
