

EVERYDAY SUCCESSES

VOLUME 3, ISSUE 15

DECEMBER 2-6, 2019

1 – Members of the Samuel Clemens High School swim team spent part of their Thanksgiving holiday sorting out dry goods for a local food drive, helping community members who are dealing with food insecurity. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #ServiceOriented

2 – Members of the Thespian troupes at Byron P. Steele High School and Samuel Clemens High School had some notable achievements recently. Aspen Palmer and Lillie Gordon made All-State Cast at the recent Texas Thespians Festival in Dallas. Palmer and Gordon will be joined by Seraphim Wright and Zack Larkin as national qualifiers.

Meanwhile, Devyn Rowe qualified for national competition with her Costume Design presentation. She will be joined by Devin Bosch, Emily Treviño and Olivia Jonas, who will represent the Troupe in Group Acting. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator

3 – Congratulations to Robyn Wunderlich, head volleyball coach for Samuel Clemens High School, after being named Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) 5A-6A Coach of the Year! She was the guiding force in leading the Buffs to their first berth in the state tournament. Well deserved! #DynamicLeader #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented

4 – Schertz-Cibolo-Universal City ISD has been recognized as Winner – EduJedi Achiever and has been cited for having amazing student achievement recognized alongside their tech investment. The announcement was made at the National Survey Award Winners during its annual gathering in Dallas, Texas on November 17th. Dr. Karla Burkholder, Director of Technology for SCUC ISD, was on hand to accept the award on behalf of the district. #DynamicLeader #ServiceOriented

5 – Yoan Mora, a bus driver in the SCUC ISD Transportation Department, was recognized by Spanish-language station KVDA-TV for the job training program he oversees while as a pastor in a San Antonio-area church. Residents from the low-income neighborhood are learning trades such as air conditioning repair and welding, among others. #DynamicLeader #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented
