

EVERYDAY SUCCESSES

VOLUME 3, ISSUE 16

DECEMBER 9-13, 2019

1 – Congratulations to Dr. Clark C. Ealy, who has been selected as the lone finalist for the position of Superintendent of Schools in the Schertz-Cibolo-Universal City Independent School District. Kudos as well to our Board of Trustees, whose exceptional work during this search process brought forth the best candidate for the school district. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented #FutureReady

2 – Hats off to Carissa Livingston, fourth grade Writing and Texas History teacher at Watts Elementary School, who was selected as the KENS 5 EXCEL Award winner for SCUC ISD earlier this week! #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented

3 – Linda Coolbaugh is a finalist for the Texas Computer Education Association (TCEA) Instructional Technology Specialist of the Year. The award, which will be announced in February, recognizes excellence in the integration of technology in schools. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented

4 – Clemens PIE Club is holding a Food Drive to benefit SCUC families whose children receive free and reduced fee meals. The food will be given to families in two ways:

PIC Food Pantry at Clemens - every Thursday afternoon Positively Impacting Communities, Inc. (PIC) hosts a Food Pantry for Clemens students and faculty that need food assistance. From 3:45 - 5:45 p.m. families can pick up meat, dairy, produce and non-perishables.

Food Giveaway - On Friday, December 20th, families in need can pick up a box of produce and meat and also select non-perishable items and toiletries. #ServiceOriented #SelfMotivated

5 – SCUC ISD students who excelled in the annual Schertz Historical Preservation Art & Essay Contest were honored at the Schertz City Council meeting on December 3rd. Co-sponsored by the SCUC ISD Social Studies Department, this year's theme was, "Native American Presence and Contributions in the Schertz, Cibolo and Universal City region". The contest was open to all SCUC ISD elementary and intermediate school students. #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator

6 – Alex Gonzales, a sophomore at Texas State University and a graduate of Samuel Clemens High School, has been awarded the Air Force ROTC In-College Scholarship, which pays up to $18,000 per year in college tuition at any public or private university with an Air Force ROTC detachment. He will also receive a monthly living expense stipend and annual book stipend. #DynamicLeader #SelfMotivated #SkilledCommunicator #ServiceOriented #FutureReady
